

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALASKA PENINSULA FISHERIES RESERVATION.

Permit No. 1923-10.
Pacific American Fisheries.
Nelson Lagoon.

December 14, 1922.

- - - - -

A reservation designated as the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of February 17, 1922, the Pacific American Fisheries, whose home office is at South Bellingham, Washington, is hereby authorized to engage in the catching and canning of salmon for commercial purposes at Nelson Lagoon, within the Port Moller District of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may operate three traps, to occupy the same sites and to be constructed essentially in the same manner as in 1922, as shown on map submitted by the Pacific American Fisheries accompanying their application for a permit.
2. That the pack of all species of salmon shall not exceed twenty-five thousand (25,000) cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.
3. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
4. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

HERBERT HOOVER
Secretary of Commerce.
